Q7 This year, AGF has renewed our focus on engaging members in public policy. Activities include reconvening the Public Policy Committee, creating a 2016 Public Policy Agenda, forming the Children's Safety & Well-Being Action Team, launching the PolicyMatters newsletter, offering educational sessions on advocacy and organizing the first-ever Arizona Philanthropy Day at the Capitol. If you participated in any of these activities or read the newsletter, to what extent has AGF increased your knowledge and understanding of critical federal or state issues likely to affect your organization's impact? Leave unrated if you have not participated in any of these activities or read the newsletter.

1	Bring network together to facilitate impact, along with information. Matchmaking of funders and qualified grantees. Explore the need for numerous and overlapping small foundations, and how resources can be used to promote consolidation.	12/19/2016 10:00 AM
2	Thank you for raising these opportunities to others who may not be engaged. It would be wonderful to collectively fund key needed areas moving forward.	12/17/2016 6:55 AM
3	Provide a trustee/board only training on the virtues and legalities of policy work	12/16/2016 2:27 PM
4	more international funding information and meetings focused on this subject.	12/16/2016 2:11 PM
5	Continue convening funders to discuss how certain policies are impacting the issues that we are passionate about. Some of my best learning has occurred when other funders are sharing their opinions on the implications of a policy on their work.	12/14/2016 8:13 AM
6	Continue to emphasize it by providing opportunities for growth in this area and materials that share a deep understanding of policy areas that we can have a real effect on.	12/12/2016 5:35 PM
7	Am very pleased to see the renewed interest in the Public Policy Committee and your effort to be at the legislature.	12/12/2016 12:33 PM
