

Philanthropy's Response to COVID-19 in Arizona

THURSDAY, APRIL 16, 2020

GUEST PRESENTER

Dana Wolfe Naimark
Wolfe Naimark Policy and Strategy

HOW ARIZONA
PHILANTHROPY CAN MAXIMIZE IMPACT IN
THE TIME OF COVID-19

FEDERAL AID: LARGE AMOUNTS WITH DELAYS AND GAPS

- Payroll Protection Program for small businesses and nonprofits
- Individual relief checks
- Expanded unemployment insurance
- Food for food banks, schools and senior meal delivery
- One-month rent and utility assistance
- Child care
- Relief and preparedness funds for tribal governments
- K-12 education and higher education

ARIZONA GOVERNMENT RESOURCES

- $1.6 B federal relief funds to reimburse unbudgeted expenses.
Spending to date:
 - $7 million distributed to counties and tribes
 - $11 million medical and lab supplies, hospital build-out
 - $2 million Emergency Operations Center and AZ National Guard
 - $4 million to Boys and Girls Clubs and YMCA for child care
- $1.3 B federal relief funds to reimburse Maricopa and Pima counties, cities of Phoenix, Tucson and Mesa

ARIZONA GOVERNMENT RESOURCES

- $5 million from State Housing Trust Fund to launch Rental Eviction Prevention Assistance Program
- $50 million state general fund to Crisis Contingency and Safety Net Fund for housing and homelessness, food bank operations, and economic assistance to small businesses, nonprofits and health care
$41.3 million unallocated

$5.0 million to homeless shelters

$1.7 million to food banks

$2 million to Goodwill to rehire staff for job training/education

INVESTMENT AREAS FOR MAXIMUM IMPACT

OPPORTUNITIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES: ADDRESS SOCIAL DETERMINANTS OF HEALTH

- Provide flexible grants
- Support direct service and advocacy to reduce disparities
- Invest in power-building for communities of color
- Support networks trusted by partners and families
- Promote transparency and accountability for public dollars
- Engage with elected leaders to include community groups, nonprofit sector and philanthropy in decision-making
- Shape long-lasting change with thought leadership and seed funding for a stronger Arizona

QUESTIONS & DISCUSSION

